Dear Colleagues,

May I ask you to forward this announcement to your PhD-students?

Thank you and my best regards

Dear PhD students,

We are excited to invite you to our International PhD Week 2024 – a summer school organized and hosted by Trier University of Applied Sciences.

The International PhD Week will take place from September 23-27, 2024 in Trier.

Throughout the event, we aim to promote academic and cultural exchange with our international partner schools. This year, we expect to bring together graduate students and aspiring young scientists from more than 10 countries. As a participant, you will have the opportunity to engage with leading scholars, researchers, and professionals in various fields. Our Summer School addresses emerging research topics such as generative AIs for scientific research and digitally enabled green and healthcare technologies. We provide participants with the knowledge and skills to excel in their current research, as well as a platform to pursue wide-ranging academic opportunities in the future.

Whether you are looking to enhance your academic skills, expand your professional network, or simply enjoy an unforgettable time exchanging research ideas with other young researchers from around the world, we invite you to join us for this exciting opportunity.

How to Apply?

To register for the International PhD Week, please visit our website and complete the online application form by July 31, 2024, including:

- A short CV (PDF, 1-2 pages)
- An abstract outlining your doctoral thesis and motivation for joining the International PhD Week and how it aligns with your academic and personal goals (PDF, max. 1 page)

There are NO fees. The summer school is free of charge for all selected participants. All activities, travel and accommodation costs will be covered by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

For further information, please refer to the attached program booklet or visit our website.
