

Adam Eleni was born in 1978 in Thessaloniki. She is an Agronomist, a graduate of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki with a specialization in Horticultural products and Vine". She completed her studies for postgraduate degree in Plant Biotechnology at the university of Reading, UK in 2003 and in the evolution of sustainable Agricultural Development at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.

She has worked in the following sectors:

-Hellenic Sugar Industry: Operations of Molecular Biology and Genetic Enhancement Development.

-Perfecture of central Macedonia(kilkis): Department of Agricultural development and food in the sector of rounded Management and Inspection System.

-Agricultural Chamber of Greece (GEOTEE -TRIPTOLEMOS): Scientific company of Research for the Protection of the natural environment and management of water resources. Organization of seminars for agronomists.

-OPEKEPE Payment and control Agency for Guidance and Guarantee Community Aid.On field Evaluation of plant production for preparation in CAP.

-Alexander Technological Educational Institute of Thessaloniki: Academic fellow, teaching classes of a) ecology b) control and insurance of quality c) Physiology of plants

ELGA: Evaluation of plant production

ERGOPLANNING LTD: Development and administration of Quality Systems. At the same time, she handled the process of submitting, compositing and management of research programmes.

Since September 2023, she has been working as a laboratory teaching staff at the Department of Food Science Technology of the University of Patras with a specialization in Plant Production and Environment.